Election and Nomination Bylaws

Article III, Section 1

F. Election Rules

(1) Prior to nominating an individual to an elected position, a discussion must be held with that individual. If the individual consents to the nomination, his/her name may be nominated. Each person shall have the right to nominate only one name to a position.

(2) If the nomination committee has interviewed an individual and nominated his/her name for a position but that individual has declined the nomination, the individual shall not allow anyone from the floor to nominate his/her name for the same position.

(3) Candidate(s) for the position of district superintendent shall be ordained pastors. Candidate(s) for the treasurer position shall not be a pastor.

F. Election Rules (cont.)

(4) An individual who has been nominated by the nomination committee maybe nominated for another position by someone else; however, that individual must withdraw his/her name from the nomination committee so that the committee may have time to nominate another candidate to replace that individual before the second reading. With the exception of the District Superintendent position, other positions with the majority votes cast shall be the winner. In the event that there are two candidates with an equal number of votes, there shall be another round of voting until one is declared the winner.

(5) If there is only one candidate for an unopposed position, a call to the floor for acceptance shall be made, except for the position of the District Superintendent.

Article III, Section 1

F. Election Rules (cont.)

(6) Candidates for the District Executive Committee of the Hmong District (DEXCOM) shall be limited to one candidate from one local church, and the Nomination Committee shall consult with the pastor or the elder of the church regarding his spiritual life.

(7) Full time employees of Hmong District shall not be eligible for nomination for the position of DEXCOM except the position of District Superintendent and Assistant District Superintendent.

(8) The District Superintendent Search Committee shall be established with five (5) members, the District Annual Conference will establish this committee who shall be appointed in the year preceding the election year of the District Superintendent. Their term of duty is only for the election of one District Superintendent (DAC 2017).

Article III, Section 2

B. The process of electing the District Superintendent and Assistant District Superintendent shall be in accordance with C&MA constitution which has been established. Of the eight (8) board members, four (4) shall be ordained pastors and four (4) shall be laymen. The treasurer shall be a layman. The Secretary shall be an ordained pastor. These two positions shall be for a term of four (4) years and may serve two (2) consecutive terms. They may serve again with a lapse of one term. Of the six (6) members at large, their terms shall be two (2) years and may serve three (3) consecutive terms.

Article III, Section 2

(cont.)

They may serve again with a lapse of one term. (DAC 2021).

The eight (8) board members shall be elected at the District Annual Conference. The candidate with the majority votes casted shall be elected. If any of the eight (8) board members resigns from the board, the District Executive Committee shall have the right to appoint a replacement to serve his position until the next election.

Article III, Section 4

F. Delegation to General Council Committee

This committee shall be appointed in accordance with C&MA Bylaws (General Council A3-4) and their term shall be two (2) years with no more than three (3) consecutive terms. The home church shall pay for the travel expenses of the committee member and the Hmong District shall pay for the food and lodging expenses. The committee shall be selected at the District Annual Conference and after their selection the District Executive Committee of the Hmong District shall appoint which General Council Committee they shall serve.
