N. Kx. Vam Meej Vaj

Bobbie Vang (N. Kx. Vam Meej Vaj) is a pastor's wife and mother of 3 wonderful children. She desires to bring women to a deep love and appreciation for God's Word. With her husband, they serve as Next Gen Pastor for the Hmong Christian & Missionary Alliance Church in Stockton, California. N. Kx. Vam Meej has been a high school English teacher for more than 17 years. When she is not lesson planning or grading papers, she enjoys reading books, going for nice long runs, and spending time with her family.

N. Xh. Xeem Tij Thoj

Mai Thao (N. Xh. Xeem Tij Steve Thoj) is a therapist at Bridging Hope Counseling in Minnesota. She graduated from Alliance Graduate School of Counseling in Nyack, NY in 2014. Alongside her husband, they currently serve as the Disciple Making Pastor at Saint Paul Hmong Alliance Church, MN. N. Xh. Xeem Tij enjoys staying physically active and her heart is to see people find freedom spiritually, mentally, and emotionally.

N. Kx. Tswv Txos Thoj

Omee Thao (N. Kx. Tswv Txos) is the wife of Dr. Lantzia Thao, District Superintendent of The Hmong District. They have been married for 32 years and have five beautiful children and one grandson.

N. Kx. Tswv Txos received her Bachelors in Psychology from Northwestern College in St. Paul, MN in 2004 and her Masters of Art in Leadership from Denver Seminary in May, 2015, where she also works full-time as a Circulation Librarian.

N. Kx. Tswv Txos is passionate about many things, but three of her deepest passions are (1) to continue serving alongside her husband in the ministry as long as God enables her to; (2) to become someone that God can use to empower others and in return that they can do the same for others, generation after generation until we meet Jesus Christ; and (3) to see young people – especially young women to rise up and allow God to use them in a mighty way to impact their generation.
